

HOPE FOR RELIEF

A Belated Message From Minister
Conger Received at the State Department.

ALL WELL AND NO FIGHTING JULY 21

It Is Thought By Washington Officials
That the Legations Are Yet
Safe From Harm.

An Imperial Edict Orders Jung Lu to Provide Assistance For the Ministers to Tien-Tsin-As Viewed in Washington.

Washington, Aug. 6.—A belated message from Minister Conger was received at the state department. It came through Consul General Goodnow, at Shanghai, who transmitted messages received by Mr. Bagdale, United States consul at Tien-Tsin, from Mr. Conger and Mr. Spuler, secretary of the United States legation at Peking. The messages are the same as those received a day or two ago by the state department from Consul Bagdale at Peking. Mr. Conger's message was transmitted to President McKinley at Canton, and Mr. Ades, acting secretary of state, later issued the following statement concerning it:

"Consul General Goodnow, in a cablegram dated Shanghai, August 3, which was received at the department of state at a 4 o'clock Sunday morning, reports the receipt by Consul Bagdale at Tien-Tsin of messages from Minister Conger and the secretary of the legation, Mr. Spuler, dated July 21, to the following effect:

"All well; no fighting since the 16th by agreement. Reasonable provisions. Hope for speedy relief."

"Mr. Goodnow adds that the director of posts, Sheng, had on the 20th communicated to him an imperial edict dated July 20, ordering Jung Lu to provide an escort for the ministers to Tien-Tsin when the ministers fix the date. The edict says the ministers can receive messages, not in cipher, but notwithstanding this plain messages were returned to some consuls on August 4."

"While the messages from Minister Conger and Secretary Spuler bear the date of July 21, the belief, founded not only upon them, but also on collateral and later information, is that the legations are yet safe from immediate harm. At present there is no news of knowing whether the ministers will accept the offer of the Chinese imperial government to provide an escort for them to Tien-Tsin but it is surmised that they prefer to remain within the British legation at Peking until the arrival of the allied forces. Should they leave for Tien-Tsin in all probability it would be because they regarded it the safer course to pursue. It is thought to be not unlikely that the Chinese government will be very insistent upon the departure of the ministers in the hope if they can be gotten to Tien-Tsin safely, the storming of Peking may be averted. The inhibition of cipher dispatches to the ministers while a serious breach of diplomatic usage is not regarded here with apprehension. The Chinese government, it is pointed out, is suspicious of the actions and intent of the powers and probably has adopted this precaution to prevent communication to the ministers the details of military movements. It is evident from the adoption of this measure that the Chinese government regards itself as antagonistic to it at least at present as with the powers. Thus far no inhibition has been placed upon cipher dispatches, the relations between various governments and their consular representatives in China outside of Peking."

Lacina, who was in command of the insurgents, returned the wounded with a letter promising to treat the prisoners well. Lieut. Boston Huesburg was ambushed and killed near Santa Cruz, province of Laguna.

Capt. Lora, of the Manila native police, was dangerously shot by an insurgent assailant while on duty in the street. He had been effectively enforcing regulations and had made enemies among the Filipinos, some of whom have long been in open rebellion. Lora had been generally accused of gross corruption in office and specific charges were filed against him by an American officer.

A Strong Force of Chinese Troops
Made An Attack On Tien-Tsin
As Soon As the Allies Had Departed For Peking.

London, Aug. 6.—The American and British forces began the advance on Peking last Thursday, according to a dispatch dated August 2 from Tien-Tsin to the Daily Express. "The main body of the allies," continues the correspondent, "marched July 30. Gen. Chaffee was delayed by difficulties of disembarkation. Gen. Dorrance the British commander, had no such obstacles, and his delay is inexplicable. The other foreign troops are now half way to Lofa. The force includes 20,000 Japanese, 10,000 Russians, 5,000 British and 7,000 other foreign troops are now half way to Lofa. The force includes 20,000 Japanese, 10,000 Russians, 5,000 British and 7,000 other foreign troops are now half way to Lofa."

"On August 1 a strong force of Chinese from the native city attacked Tien-Tsin. By a series of brilliant charges our troops drove them from their positions. The native city is still defiant, and the allies are unwilling to march through its streets, as this would mean an inevitable slaughter. When the Chinese saw so large a body of troops, marching westward, they apparently believed they would have an easy victory over those who were left."

A message to the same paper from a correspondent in Peking dated July 22 says: "The women have borne all the horrors with marvelous fortitude, and even the Chinese wanted peace when the arsenals at Tien-Tsin were captured, and it bade fair to be successful. Unfortunately Li Ping Huan and Yang Yu arrived here at the critical moment and overthrew the peace party."

"Food has been short, but not terrible so, though we have had to be very careful."

A Shanghai dispatch dated August 4 says: "The first overt attack upon foreigners occurred this morning. Three Chinese, supposed to be soldiers in disguise, fired at a well known English resident while he was lying asleep on the veranda of his house. He had a narrow escape."

The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Mail announces the reception of an imperial edict dated August 2 ordering Gen. Yang Lu to select his military and civil dignitaries together with sufficient number of picked troops, to escort the foreign ministers to Tien-Tsin as soon as they desire to leave Peking. By the terms of the edict Gen. Yang Lu will be held personally responsible for the safety, and he is given full authority to deal summarily with those opposing the peaceful passage of the escort."

"My such acts," concludes the edict, "do we show our good intentions to people from a far and open our bosoms to them."

Paris, Aug. 6.—The French foreign office has received the following dispatch from the French consul at Chefoo, dated August 2: "The governor of Moukden, in a proclamation, has urged the people of Manchuria to massacre Christians. Paris, Aug. 6.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Temps says: "The number of allies leaving Tien-Tsin is no longer known here than are the facts as to the march itself, but it is rumored that the advance guard has been repulsed."

A STRATEGIC MOVE.

And Seven Men Killed a Two-Foot Snake Yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Owens of Commerce street heard a peculiar croaking noise in their vegetable garden yesterday afternoon when they were gone for search. Knowing frogs do not give their little song in day time they moved with carefulness.
Presently a rattling among potato vines brought their attention to a wiggling reptile which appeared like a lizard. Upon closer inspection, however, they cornered a snake which gave forth the peculiar noise above mentioned. By a strategic movement Mr. Owens enticed his new-found pest to a tub, where he kept him till reinforcements could be brought to do the work of slaughter, which was quickly done to the gratification of the neighborhood. After the dead had been accomplished the measurement was 2 feet and the species, a poisonous kind, which, by the snakehandler called in, was declared to be a Basiliscus or Boconchil snake.

THE CINCINNATI ENQUIRER—Tom Campbell's personal organ in dirty work and the dissemination of lies—published the following on Friday morning:

He says Hockersmith has been spirited away, and that the attorneys for the other defendants will

COLONEL CAMPBELL'S DEFECTION.

London Herald, (Descriptive.)
The now notorious star witness of Colonel Thomas C. Campbell and his very numerous and able and vigilant assistants, has been arrested for perjury, and the Campbell correspondents at Georgetown are telegraphing over the country that "the general impression is that the Commonwealth was imposed upon in its much-chagrined over the developments." The last half of this report is probably true—that some one is "much chagrined over the developments." The developments "can't be too quickly and too severely, and no doubt caused much chagrin—not chagrin at the nefarious perjurer and cunning perjurer, not at the plan to have the life of Powers endangered by this perjury and subornation of perjury—but at the developments." And who believes that the "general impression" anywhere is that Campbell and those who were privy to the preparation, training and introduction of this witness were imposed upon by the sweet, innocent attorneys from the rural districts—taken in by a strolling barber—actually "imposed upon" by a more stranger man. It will indeed be strange news in Cincinnati that Thomas C. Campbell was actually imposed upon by this idle vagabond; it will read queerly to those who know of his connection with the Wood hall-toilet forgery; the New York prosecutions and the late will case in Cincinnati that he was deceived, duped in his eyes, actually "imposed upon" by a man who just turned up in the very nick of time and aware to precisely what Campbell wanted. The tale too thin. This man had never been in Frankfort. His story was circumstantial as to windows, persons, places with which he was wholly unfamiliar, who told him of these localities, who described to him these objects and their relation to each other and to the testimony which had been introduced; the perjury of this witness has been discovered; it demonstrates that perjury has been introduced to convict Powers; how much other perjury has been introduced, how many other perjurers have been used have not as yet been ascertained and proven.

"Head lines maketh the apothecary's ointment to stick," the entire ointment is made to stick by this one dead fly.

Just at the height of sensations produced by false telegrams that confessions were being forced upon Colonel Campbell and Mr. Justice Giebel came the interview with Holly Witherspoon and Judge C. S. French revealing their interview with James Andrew Scott and laying before the state the inner and determined purpose of the prosecution; just as the prosecution closes and Colonel Campbell rushes into print to create popular sentiment against Powers comes the exposure of Weaver and whomsoever trained and introduced him. There is a Providence, and He is always left out of the calculations of those who suborn perjury.

IRRAID SCORES CAMPBELL.

Another of the Disreputable Cincinnati Shyster's Schemes Shown Up in Good Shape.

The Cincinnati Enquirer—Tom Campbell's personal organ in dirty work and the dissemination of lies—published the following on Friday morning:
"(Cincinnati Enquirer, Ky., August 2.—Richard Combs, better known as 'Tallow Dick,' one of the defendants in the Giebel murder case, has become suspicious that he is not receiving fair treatment from his co-defendants and that he has had an interview with attorneys for the prosecution, in which he said that he wants Mason Hockersmith as a witness. He says Hockersmith has been spirited away, and that the attorneys for the other defendants will do nothing to find him. He asserts that Hockersmith told him that Judd offered him $1,000 to kill Giebel, and showed him how it could be done through a window in the office of the Secretary of State. He said Hockersmith asked time to consider, and asked Combs' advice. He told Hockersmith to have nothing to do with it. They were talking on the subject when the fatal shot was fired."

This statement was so infamously false that the Hon. Robert B. Franklin, Commonwealth's Attorney, published the following signed denial, in which he gives Campbell a decided jolt in the ribs:

GEORGETOWN, KY., August 3.—Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin made the following statement about the alleged "Tallow Dick" Combs "confession":

"I do not make a statement, but no one representing the Commonwealth has given it out, and the story published in the paper to which you have called my attention, is not a correct report of what Combs had to say. As to what Combs did say I do not feel that I should make publication of it. The idea of the proper course of conduct for attorneys to pursue in matters of this kind is to present evidence in the open Court. False stories in newspapers can serve no good purpose, and in my humble opinion should never be published."
